

MS/BRADISH, ALVAH

1794 – 1900
1 Linear Foot

Alvah Bradish, pioneer Detroit artist, painted more than five hundred portraits, largely of Michigan men and women of his time. Born in 1806, he died in 1901.

This collection consists of letters that deal with his professional and personal activities. Many of them are written by Bela Hubbard, and by other prominent men of early Detroit.
